

Nowhere is the work of the RSCM more of a joy than at the many training courses offered across our continent. The joining together of voices from diverse programs, the sharing of ideas from various professionals, and the intense growing—socially, musically, and spiritually—that occur at each of the training courses transform these weeks into mountaintop experiences for all who attend.

Our underlying premise is that, when given the tools and the opportunity, children and adults alike will from its music directors, chaplains, and proctors. Each venue is chosen for the appropriateness according to the needs of the course, but with the health and safety of the participants foremost in mind.

Please take a few minutes to peruse the information located in this brochure and find a course that suits your particular needs. There is something here for everyone! rise to the highest standards of music making, and do so gladly. Each course has its own identity. Some are of grand scale, with over 100 participants singing in monumental spaces. Others are more intimate, with less than 25 participants. Some offer organ components, adult seminars, voice instruction, ear training, beach outings, or days in the mountains. Each prides itself on first-class instruction and leadership an unforgettable experience that will energize your home choir, impart new skills to yourself and your choristers, and help your home program flourish!

July 26- August 1 Washington for Advanced Trebles

This ultimate opportunity for advanced singing boys and girls takes place on the Close of Washington National Cathedral. Young people love returning to the course year after year for the opportunity to make music in this important place, to renew friendships, and to experience our nation's capitol. The Cathedral is but one of several Washington area venues for services and exploration through the week.

Participants: 8 boys and 22 girls of advanced ability (red or yellow ribbon, or equivalent)
Fees: $625 for trebles in residence; $375 for adult day observers. RSCM members receive a $25 discount
Contact: RSCM America 609.921.3012 or www.rscmamerica.org

July 26- August 4 King's College
Barry Rose, Music Director

In this, the largest of the summer courses, girls, boys, and adults sing both their own repertoire and as combined choirs. There are also unique opportunities for teens and young adults. King's College in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania offers a splendid location in the heart of the Pocono Mountains. The reverberant and versatile worship space of St. Stephen's Church provides an ideal setting for inspiring music-making and liturgy.

Participants: 60 girls, 40 boys, 30 teens/young adults, and 20 adults, plus 2 organ scholars
Fees: $525. RSCM members receive a $25 discount

Courses for Girls, Boys and Teens

August 2-8 NEW! Rhode Island at Newport
Benjamin Hutto, Music Director

RSCM America is pleased to announce that a summer course will once again be available in New England! Girls, boys and teens alike will find this new course, in residence at Salve Regina College in beautiful and historic Newport by the Sea, a wonderful setting for a week of fine music-making, fun and fellowship. Choristers will rehearse daily with Mr. Hutto and opportunities for small group and individual instruction will be provided. Final choral services will be held at Emmanuel Church, Newport.

Participants: Boys and girls, age 9-16
Fees: $575, not including music. RSCM members receive a $25 discount

Course for Young Adults

June 27- July 4 NEW! Westminster Choir College/RSCM at Princeton and New York City
Joe Miller, Music Director
Ken Cowan, Organist

This new course is a collaboration between RSCM America and Westminster Choir College in beautiful Princeton, N.J. Organists, conductors and singers will participate in a typical RSCM choir experience AND have the opportunity to immerse themselves in the varied facets of a well-rounded church music career. Full music rehearsals are balanced by smaller elective classes, including vocal coaching, voice training and care, hymn playing and improvisation, and a sacred music seminar. Daily worship opportunities will be offered. The course concludes with a two-day residency in New York City and final services at the magnificent Cathedral of Saint John the Divine. This is a great course for those considering a degree in sacred music, but just as much fun for those who simply want an excellent singing experience. 2 graduate credits are available.

Participants: Rising high school juniors and seniors, college students and adult observers
Fees: $750; RSCM members receive a $25 discount. Two graduate credits are available and are an additional $500. Fee for adult observer: $225
